Nehru Criticized for Failure to Aid Tibet Rebels

By WATSON SIMS
NEW DELHI, Ind. (AP) — Prime Minister Nehru today rejected Communist China's attempt to cut off discussion of the Tibetan revolt in the Indian Parliament, but still took no firm stand toward the Red military campaign to suppress the revolt.

Criticism mounted in Indian newspapers of Nehru's failure to back the Tibetan rebels' attempt to free the Himalayan country of Communist control. "Let us hold our heads low today," said the Hindustan Times, "considered close to Nehru's Congress party."

Nehru told Parliament that he would make firm statements on Tibet when he was in a position to make them.

Nehru said India's sympathies "go out to the Tibetans."

But he voiced no condemnation of the Chinese. He declined to comment on Peking's announcement that the Dalai Lama had been ousted as head of the local Tibetan government and told a questioner his government had made no inquiry to Red China on the matter.

Nehru also denied Red Chinese charges that the "commanding center of the rebellion" was in Kalimpong, the Indian town near the border.

Robot Machine Is Taking Bows

SCHENECTADY, N.Y. (AP) — A machine resembling a science-fiction robot is taking its bows here and the General Electric Co. says "Handyman" may be the first "man" on the moon.

"Handyman" is a mechanical slave consisting of two arms that have a nine-foot reach from fingertip to fingertip. It responds to a human operator through an intricate electric-hydraulic system.

GE said the machine could be operated by remote control over many thousands of miles with the machine on the moon and its human operator on earth, for instance.

"Handyman" was designed to serve as a master mechanic on an atomic aircraft power plant and to work in radioactive areas where man cannot exist.

It is the first robot that can simulate the clutching action of the human hand, GE said, and can hammer a nail into a board, unscrew a bolt or twist a nut.

The unit also can be equipped with a 3D closed circuit television for eyes, GE said.

Easter Sunrise Service, and Man Who Initiated It Here

This picture was made at 7:30 a.m. Sunday in front of First Baptist church as the crowd was leaving the Easter Sunrise Service.

From left to right: First two figures unidentified, Norman Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Anderson, and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McCain.

Mr. Anderson initiated the Easter Sunrise Service here back in 1937, serving as the first service chairman.

Military Assures Arms Ample to Protect Nation

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The nation's military chiefs told the free world today that America can air, atom and growing missile might, can break the Soviet Union's back — destroy her "many times over" — if the Kremlin opens World War III.

The assurance came as members of the 15-nation North Atlantic Treaty Organization conference prepared to open Thursday a strategy conference here marking the 10th anniversary of the NATO pact.

By a "strange coincidence," the soberly confident statements put the Soviet Union on notice, the Western Big Three will be leading from strength if they take seats at a summit conference this year.

Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy told a Detroit audience America has airborne nuclear power, poised and ready in sufficient force to "destroy the Soviet Union if it should attack us."

McElroy said, with mobile forces which have proved their ability to land by air or sea and stamp out brushfire wars in the world's far corners.

More explicit, though heavily censored, picture of American strength was painted in testimony by the chiefs of the uniformed services before the House Defense Appropriations subcommittee in January and February. The cut-down transcript was released over the weekend.

Adm. Arleigh Burke, chief of naval operations, asserted that if the Soviet Union launches all-out war, "we can destroy her many times over with the weapons we now have in existence. We would break her back."

Burke and Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, Army chief of staff, agreed the nation has "too much regulatory power."

Thousands of command and unmanned vehicles could pour nuclear devastation on the Soviet Union, said Taylor, whereas the job could be done with hundreds.

The Army and Navy chiefs urged Congress to devote a larger portion of defense spending to building alert, mobile forces for small wars in which the Soviet Union might not be a direct participant.

Gen. Nathan F. Twining, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, told Congress that the Soviet Union would have to depend today almost entirely on manned aircraft to deliver a nuclear assault.

And the Soviet air threat, he went on, is "not half as big as ours and not nearly so effective."

His testimony showed the Air Force is sure it knows the location of major Soviet strategic targets and can pinpoint its A-bomb and H-bomb drops on them with accuracy measured in feet, not miles expected from long-range missiles.

Charges that the nation's armor has its clinks were leveled, however, by Rep. George Mahon (D-Tex.), chairman of the subcommittee which hears the glowing confident testimony.

The Joint Chiefs, said Mahon, have left "the American people out on a limb" by failing to agree among themselves on vital armaments issues. They are not, he said, "the advisory group the nation expects."

The chiefs have concurred on broad strategy, he said, but never have reached decision on how many Army divisions, ships and air wings are needed to execute.

Russia Hands Notes to West Agreeing to Meet of Foreign Ministers

Harmon for President Move Booms

NORTH VERNON, Ind. (AP) — Rep. Randall S. Harmon (D-Ind.) visited with businessmen Sunday who are booming the congressman for president in the man who saved the American front porch from extinction.

Harmon attended church services here with his mother, then conferred with organizers of the "Harmon for President Club No. 1."

While here he met Mrs. Elvin Hill of Tucson, Ariz., who told him of her plans to arrange a "Harmon for President Club No. 2" as soon as she gets back home.

Mrs. Hill is a relative of John L. Powell, a local loan company manager and president of the North Vernon club.

Harmon gave a two-hour account of his life philosophy of government and what he's going to do to newspapers if they libel him.

"The first paper that misquotes me or libels me, I am going to sue them for one million dollars," Harmon declared.

And then I am going to give the money to the Shriners crippled children's hospital fund," he said.

Harmon said he is having trouble with his wife over the front porch district office in Muncie.

"She keeps pestering me for the rental of our front porch. I haven't made a stand whether she is going to get any money or not."

It was disclosure of the front porch rental that skyrocketed Harmon into the national spotlight.

Harmon, who represents Indiana's 10th District, said his wife, Mary, wants to collect the 100 a month from the government for use of their porch.

U. S. Sports Plane Lands in E. Germany

LEIDLBERG, Germany (AP) — A missing American sports plane piloted by a U.S. Army civilian employee was observed landing in East Germany, a U.S. Army announcement said today.

The statement said a U.S. patrol witnessed the landing of the plane last Friday afternoon just over the East German border near Dirschbach.

The civilian employee was identified as E. A. Vaughan, 32, an employee of the Army post's exchange system in West Germany.

Vaughan's wife had said her husband became lost on a flight from Mannheim to Nuremberg Friday and strayed across the Iron Curtain into Soviet-occupied East Germany.

Both Army authorities and Mrs. Vaughan declined to disclose the pilot's address in the United States.

Conference Is Considered an Allied Victory

LONDON (AP) — Soviet Russia today handed notes to the Big Three Western powers agreeing to an East-West foreign ministers conference beginning in Geneva May 11, Tass Agency reported.

Tass said "according to information received," the Soviet government agreed to attend the party "in order to consider questions concerning Germany," including the peace treaty with Germany and the Berlin question.

Tass said Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko received the U.S., British and French ambassadors and handed them the Soviet notes in reply to the three Western notes of March 26.

The notes had differences in emphasis, but all looked beyond the foreign ministers conference to a summit meeting later in the year.

The Soviet government expressed regret in its notes "that complete mutual understanding has not yet been reached on the participation of Poland and Czechoslovakia."

The Allies have suggested the two Communist nations should join the latest stages of talks.

Moscow said the Communists possible that the question of no participation of Poland and Czechoslovakia should be brought during the conference.

The question of the representation of the two German states at the conference of foreign ministers can be regarded as mutually agreed," Tass reported.

The West has proposed that both participation of Poland and Czechoslovakia should be solved during the conference.

"The question of the representation of the two German states at the conference of foreign ministers can be regarded as mutually agreed," Tass reported.

The West has proposed that both West and East German representatives sit in on the parley as observers.

Competition Law Upheld by Court

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court today upheld constitutionality of a 1937 law against "unfair competition."

In doing so, the court sent back for trial in Benton Circuit Court the suit of Concrete Inc., of Rogers, against Arkhola Sand & Gravel Co. of Fort Smith.

The lower court had dismissed the suit without trial and held the 22-year-old law unconstitutional.

Concrete Inc. accused Arkhola with selling concrete in the Rogers and Springdale areas for a lower price than in other sections after making allowances for transportation costs.

Concrete Inc. said this was done to destroy it as a competitor. Under the 1937 law, the plaintiff asked for an injunction and for treble damages.

The Supreme Court said the law was not a price-fixing act.

Associate Justice Sam Johnson said for the court:

"The purpose of this act... is to safeguard against the creation of monopolies and to foster and encourage competition by prohibiting unfair and discriminatory practices by which fair and honest competition is destroyed or prevented."

Winners in Easter Egg Hunt

An estimated 600 children found the 3,500 eggs. The 20 bantam eggs meant free show passes to the finders and the golden eggs got the finders $2.50 in gift certificates. Three of the older children, Linda Sanders, Sarah Gordon and Joey Lively won season passes to the swimming pool.

Christians of World Observe Easter Sunday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
CHRISTIANS over much of the world celebrated Easter Sunday with services and prayers for peace. Outside American churches there were the usual fashion parades.

Pope John XXIII, in the first Easter Mass of his pontificate, pleaded for peace. But he declared that the good Christian does not yield and is wary of compromises.

Despite an all-day downpour,
100,000 persons were in St. Peter's Square for the month's blessing.
Among them were 63 contest winning newsmen from 58 U.S. newspapers. Afterward, the boys presented an Easter egg to Italian movie queen Gina Lollobrigida.

In West Berlin, a record 100,000 tourists converged on the city 110 miles inside Communist East Germany.

Pilgrims of numerous demonstrations hailed the Resurrection in the Jordan-occupied old city of Jerusalem.

Coptic bishops held services at the far end of the church of the Holy Sepulchre, while Greek Orthodox and Armenian Christians conducted services in other parts of the building.

Among those attending a later pontifical Mass in the basilica were Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt and her 10-year-old granddaughter Nina. Jordanian news-pers had protested Mrs. Roosevelt's visit because of her friendship for Israel, but there were no incidents.

Lutherans held sunrise services at the Garden Tomb outside the walls of Jerusalem and midmorning services in the Church of the Resurrection.

The Anglicans worshiped in St.
George's Cathedral, and Protestants of other denominations met at the Garden Tomb for interdenominational services.

Rain dampened the day in part of the United States. The sun broke through over New York, but cool temperatures kept Fifth Avenue Easter parades down to an estimated 800,000, compared to the record 1,200,000 who strolled in 1957.

A parade stopper in the Avenue's chapeau department were two live chicks on a hat designed as a basket covered with pink lace. It was worn by Ingrid Aronson, Göteborg, Sweden.

In Galesburg, Pa., a crowd of 300 watched the arrival of President and Mrs. Eisenhower, with the couple's son, daughter-in-law and four grandchildren, at the Presbyterian church.

The President's wife wore a pink/violet wool suit with a small hat of pink violets with green velvet trim. But the crowd was most pleased by her three young granddaughters in matching white-trimmed red dresses, light blue or gray coats, and red-trimmed white Breton sailor hats on the two older girls and a flowered bonnet on 5-year-old Marcy Jean.

Italy Agrees
to Base U. S.
Missiles

By STANLEY MEISLER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Italy's agreement to station Jupiter missiles on her territory is expected to heighten the importance of the Atlantic Pact strategy conference opening here Thursday.

As foreign ministers of the 15 member nations gathered in Washington for preliminary talks, diplomatic officials Sunday night reported that Italy, after a year of negotiation, had approved the placing of intermediate range missile bases in northern Italy.

From these bases, a Jupiter could reach the southern portion of the Soviet Union.

The agreement, expected to be formally announced in a few days, means that part of the program set up at the last North Atlantic Treaty Organization meeting had been achieved in December 1957, the foreign ministers agreed to build IRBM bases in the North Atlantic area.

This year's conference, which marks the 10th anniversary of NATO, will be preceded by vital talks among the foreign ministers of the United States, England, France and West Germany.

They hope to lay out the master blueprint for negotiations with the Soviet Union at a foreign ministers conference in May and a probable summit conference in the summer.

Talks will begin Tuesday with the arrival of British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd. He will confer first with Acting Secretary of State Christian Herter and French Foreign Minister Couve de Mur-ville, who flew in Sunday. Foreign Minister Heinrich von Brentano of West Germany, who arrived Saturday, will join the conference late Tuesday or Wednesday.

A statement issued by the Soviet Union Sunday helped set the stage for the week of meetings.
Although U. S. officials saw nothing new in the statement, it conspicuously omitted the usual loud and bitter attacks on NATO.
The statement, distributed by Tass, the official Soviet news agency:

1 Asked NATO to sign a non-aggression pact with the Soviet-led Warsaw Treaty organization.
2 Called on the West to accept the Polish Rapacki plan for withdrawal of foreign forces from a central European zone and a ban on nuclear weapons in that zone.
3 Again proposed that Berlin

The meeting was opened with president Thel Hanning as master of ceremonies and Rev. J. H.
Robertson offering the invocation.
Following the meal a vocal solo was given by David Hanning with Mrs. Hanning accompanying him on the piano. Miss Bobby Graham gave an entertaining pantomime of the "Clapper Girl." Mrs. Vernon Fore and Mrs. Joe R. Hamilton accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Warren Cummings. There were several vocal selections.

Those taking part in making plans and preparation for the banquet were: Program Committee:
Vernon Fore, chairman, Dr.
Wayne Jordan and Charlie Tompkins. Men: Horace Jones and W.
R. Durham. Table arrangements:
Mrs. N. N. Daniel, Mrs. Thel

Misses Ellen Marie Holt, Sara Anne McGill, Alice Grimes and Lila Grimes were assisting hostesses when the B. & P. W. Club met on Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Thorne Hesterly.
Spring flowers in graceful arrangements decorated the rooms.

The opening prayer was given by Mrs. E. B. Johnson. Mrs. Ver-nice Hubbard had charge of the program on "Public Affairs" and introduced Rosa Sheppard who showed colored slides of scenic and historical places he visited in Holland while serving with the Armed Forces.

Mrs. Robbie Wilson, president, urged the members to attend the Southwest B. & P. W. Conference to be held in DeQueen on Sunday April 5. The club voted to contribute ten dollars to the swimming pool fund. It was announced that the club made a profit of $245.94 on their recent spaghetti supper.
The following were appointed to serve on the nominating committee: Mrs. Della Stewart, Mrs. Ver-nice Hubbard, Miss Margarette Avery, Mrs. Lois Shipp and Mrs.
Mabel Wahlquist. The meeting adjourned with the Club Collect.

The hostesses served a dessert course carrying out the Easter motto to the twenty-seven present.

Texarkanian Shot to Death in Texas

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — An Arkansas man was fatally shot in a small hotel here yesterday while the victim was using a toilet.
The victim was James Cullen
Pouney, 27, of Texarkana.

Theodore James Pouney, 32, told police he fired after Pouney came to his hotel apartment.
Pouney said he asked him to go back down the stairs.
Pouney said Pouney molested his wife while the former was in jail on a charge of illegal sale of whisky. He was released Friday.
Pouney was shot under the heart with a .22 caliber pistol.
Pouney was held by police. No charge had been filed immediately.

KILLER AMONG US

By Robert Martin

Mr. Garland said, "Well, I'm afraid that Mr. Quincy left under sort of a cloud. He was selling ceramic formulas to our competition."

"Oh, my," I said. "That's bad. What was his reason?"

"It says here that he was in debt and needed the money."

"A well known situation. Did your company prosecute?"

"Oh, no. But because of his—ah—disloyalty he was asked to resign."

"What about his professional ability?"

"Excellent. According to his record he is a top man in his field."

"Well, thank you, Mr. Garland. Your information will help us in making a decision. If I can be of assistance to you at any time, please call on me."

There was a knock on my door. I opened it and Sandy stood there, fresh and lovely. "Ready for breakfast?" she asked brightly.

"Yes. Come in." I went to the phone again and called Chief Kree. "This is Bennett. Did you pick up John Simmons?"

"Yep. Two of my boys just brought him from Toledo. He's not happy."

"Then the meeting will begin at nine?"

"I don't know. You wanted them all here, but Philip Varney is gone."

"Gone?" My fingers tightened on the phone.

"That's right. Looks like he skipped. And that isn't all—he took Ginny Masters with him. Logan Masters called me. Ginny left a note saying she was going away with Varney, to get married. Logan demanded that I stop them. I figured they headed for Kentucky, a quick-marriage state. Maybe the state patrol will pick 'em up."

We had finished eating and were sitting glumly over coffee when the phone rang. It was Kree. "We got 'em, Jim." He sounded pleased. "The state patrol picked 'em up south of Columbus. They'll be here in about two hours."

Nathaniel Kree was waiting for us in his office. He was wearing a dark blue uniform, with braid.

and also was on the Independence County GOP Committee. He once was an unsuccessful candidate for United States Senator.

He had suffered from heart trouble.

A graduate of the University of Oklahoma Law School, Wade succeeded his father, Henry Wade, as postmaster here in 1922 and served four years.

He also had been a law partner of Paul Ward, now an associate justice of the state supreme court, but left law practice to enter the insurance business.

Survivors include three brothers, Marvin Wade of Little Rock; Mark Wade of Burns, Tenn.; and Cecil Wade of Tyler, Tex.

Funeral services were pending.

and a black tie. I stared at him in admiration. "You look real sharp, Nate."

He grinned modestly. "After all, I'm chief, and this is official business." He regarded Sandy appreciatively.

I introduced them and explained that she was going to take notes at the meeting.

"She's welcome," Kree said, "but I've got a boy on the force who's a whiz at shorthand. He gave Sandy a radiant grin. "You been with Jim long, Miss?"

"Long enough," I said. "We're going to be married. He was the first person I told."

"Well, well, that's sure nice. Congratulations, Jim."

"Thanks," I said, lapping it up. Sandy smiled prettily.

Ginny Masters was crying, holding hands to her face. Kree looked at me helplessly. "Logan asked me to take care of her until the hearing is over. Her mother is away, and—"

"Yes," nodded at Sandy, who went to Ginny immediately.

In the corridor Kree said, "Do you want me to tell 'em who you really are?"

"You may as well. Three of them already know." I held up three fingers. "Logan Masters, John Simmons and Dorothy Donovan. And three others, who will not be present—Howard Ackerman, Mrs. Ackerman, and Ginny Masters."

They were all there. Philip Varney, his face white and expressionless, sat in the first row between Lawrence Quincy and Dorothy Donovan. On Quincy's right, two seats away, Mike Brandon, the shipping department foreman, reclined easily.

In the second row were the guard who had been on duty the night before, the one with the toothbrush mustache, the fireman, Vossky, who had discovered the bones of Jake Stagg; and the old watchman. Three chairs away from them sat John Simmons, smoothly dressed. Two rows back Logan Masters sat alone, his tiny hands clasped beneath his chin. The two back rows contained the three office cleaning women and 15 men, who, I guessed, rounded out the night crew.

Kree cleared his throat and the police stenographer bent over his pad.

"The chief said, 'Gentlemen, and ladies—' He gave Dorothy Donovan and the women in the rear a courtly little nod—'First, I want to thank you all for appearing here this morning. This is an informal hearing to learn some facts, if we can, about a tragic occurrence.' He paused, inclined his head toward me. 'This gentleman may be known to some of you as Mr. James Bennett, a new Buckeye employee in the sales department. However, at least three of you know that Mr. Bennett is really a private investigator employed by the company to learn, if possible, the reason for the continued manufacture and shipment of a faulty product, and to apprehend the person or persons responsible for the sabotage.'"

There was a small mutter of comment, particularly from the guard and Vossky, the fireman. Philip Varney shot me a quick startled glance. Lawrence Quincy seemed not to have heard. John Simmons still seemed to be pretending that he was somewhere else.

Kree said, "I'm sure that by now you all know what happened last night. News travels fast in Maple Hill." He paused and smiled faintly. "Here are the facts."

the northeast border where many Tibetans have taken refuge.

Russia's Communist party organ Pravda echoed the Peiping charge that Kaimpong was the seat of rebellion and also claimed that Nationalist Chinese planes were flying arms to the rebels.

Western observers in Hong Kong discounted the latter charge because of the considerable distance between Formosa and Tibet.

Communist China was expected to launch an all-out drive to communicate Tibet following its replacement of the fugitive Dalai Lama's rebellious government by a puppet regime headed by the country's other spiritual leader, the river Panchen Lama.

Despite Red China's claim that the rebellion was quelled March 21, two days after it erupted in Lhasa, widespread resistance was reported continuing in various sectors outside the capital.

Border reports said Chinese rule extended only 20 or 30 miles south of Lhasa. A rebel "national defense army" was said to be collecting taxes in the south. A rebel radio was reported operating there.

Even Pravda said rebel remnants were still holding out in remote sectors of Tibet, but it claimed that an adventure of a band of traitors has suffered complete defeat.

the plans. They failed to agree on whether the Air Force needs another 70 B-52 bombers, he said, and did not pass on the proposed Army cutback to 870,000 men.

But Mahon, too, stressed that no one should underestimate American power.

Everyone should realize, he said, that "We have a terrific capability for launching an unstoppable counteroffensive if attacked."

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's military leaders have assured Congress the United States would be invincible this year in an all-out war—and more power is in sight.

Secretary Dulles Goes to Florida

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles left Washington for Florida today to recuperate from a cancer illness.

President Eisenhower's personal plane was assigned for the 3 1/2 hour flight to Palm Beach Air Force Base.

Twining said a Soviet nuclear assault, if delivered today, would come almost entirely from the named aircraft, and the Soviet Union's air threat, he added, is "not half as big as ours and not nearly so effective."

Burke said that in an all-out war "we can destroy her (the Soviet Union) many times over with the weapons we now have in existence. There is no way that she can stop that. We would break her back."

Burke, whose Navy will pack a growing atomic wallop, said he thought the United States has "too much retaliatory power." He urged a bigger share of defense spending for small wars in which the SSR might not be a direct participant.

Taylor said U.S. atomic retaliatory power is overwhelming. He said the nation has thousands of vehicles which could rain nuclear destruction on the Soviets, whereas, he added, the job could be done with hundreds.

The testimony shows the Air Force is confident it knows the location of major Soviet strategic targets. It also says it can deliver nuclear bombs by manned aircraft with accuracy measured in feet, compared to the miles expected from long range missiles.

In the automotive business, "shell" is the body of a car. And it's easier to be fooled by these auto body shells than by the old shell game. The plain fact is this: Every medium-priced car but one uses a body shell shared with a low-priced car, the lowest-priced car in the line. The one middle-priced car that uses its own exclusive body specifically designed to give you more than low-priced-car value is Mercury. # Braves Showing Little Sign of Champion Team

By ED CORRIGAN, Associated Press Sports Writer

With the opening of the National League season less than two weeks away, the champion Milwaukee Braves are doing nothing to improve their own confidence or their stock in the rest of the league.

Consider their record in the worst in the Grapefruit League, 5-13.

They still haven't found a satisfactory replacement for second baseman Red Schoendienst, out with TB.

General Manager Birdie Tebbetts admits he's getting worried about the complacency on the team.

And if that isn't enough, old faithful Warren Spahn was blasted for four home runs in Sunday's 3-0 Braves' loss to the Cincinnati Reds.

Operating at second base was 23-year-old Chuck Göttinger, a good fielder, no hit. At the moment, he has the call over Felix Mantilla and Joe Morgan.

"I'm concerned about complacency on the club," Tebbetts said. "I'm more worried about the fact that we have no young fellows to battle the others out for their jobs to make them put out."

Tebbetts and Cincinnati General Manager Gabe Paul talked trade in Miami Sunday. But like the rest of the league, Paul senses the Braves are in trouble and left of a mind to help them plug the second base gap.

After pitching a three-hit shut-out against the St. Louis Cardinals last Tuesday, Spahn was shelled for six runs by the Reds. The homer hitters were Frank Robinson, Dutch Dotterer, Johnny Temple and Pete Whitenant. Robinson hit another later against Joey Jay.

In other games Sunday, the Baltimore Orioles edged the Pittsburgh Pirates, 6-5; the Cleveland Indians turned back the Chicago Cubs, 4-2; the Boston Red Sox whipped the San Francisco Giants, 9-7 and the Kansas City A's halted the Washington Senators, 3-2, in seven innings.

The Chicago White Sox and the New York Yankees played a 3-3 tie that was called off because of rain after eight innings, while the St. Louis-Philadelphia and Los Angeles-Detroit games were rained out.

Rookie Willie Tasby hit two home runs in Baltimore's triumph over Pittsburgh. The Indians required 10 innings to down the Cubs and they turned the trick when Jim Bolger hit a two-run homer off Dick Drott.

A homer also decided the Boston-Giants' affair. Frank Malone hit one with one man on in the ninth and that was the ball game.

Baseball League Organized and Ready for Play

In a meeting at the Hope Youth Center last week including about 30 Little League and Pony League managers, sponsors and backers, Franklin McFarly was elected president of the group, and Norman Moore, vice president, Sam Strong, treasurer.

The group discussed baseball finances, schedules, try-outs, players, uniforms, etc.

The group also set up tentative plans to provide a better baseball program for the boys in 1939-40. This year old age group, this program would function independently from the Little League and Pony League program and would require a responsible general manager in addition to a playing manager.

Plans are to field 6 Little League teams, 4 Pony League teams, 4 Doctor's League teams and 1 Big League team. Try outs for the Little League will be sometime in late April or early May with league play beginning immediately after school is out. All boys trying out will be placed on some team with all boys within the local school district being permitted to try out.

Baylor Leads Lakers Over St. Louis

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The amazing Elgin Baylor today climbed aboard the pedestal previously reserved for only George Mikan at Minneapolis.

There was no showing.

Baylor earned his niche alongside the former Minneapolis great this weekend as he led the Lakers in the National Basketball Ass'n's final playoff.

It was Baylor's prolific scoring as well as his superlative defensive work that enabled Minneapolis to defeat St. Louis in two consecutive games and eliminate the defending champion Hawks 4-2 in their best-of-seven series.

Rookie Baylor, an All America at Seattle last year, scored 36 points Saturday night — seven of eight Minneapolis scored in overtime — as the Lakers squeezed out a 98-97 decision. Baylor's foul shot in the last 27 seconds won it.

Sunday at Minneapolis the Western Division playoff title was on the line. Baylor came through with 33 points in a clutch performance. His two free throws with a minute left proved the margin of victory in the 108-104 triumph.

The Eastern division semifinal playoff between Boston and Syracuse is tied at three games each with the deciding contest to be played Wednesday in Boston. The Celtics romped 129-108 at home Saturday, but the Nets squared it with a 133-121 victory Sunday at Syracuse.

Rolph Schayes with 32 per game and George Yardley with 22 paced Syracuse. Frank Ramsey led Boston with 26.

Williams Is Discouraged Over Ailment

Associated Press Sports Writer

BOSTON (AP)—A discouraged Ted Williams today awaited examination and treatment for the latest ailment which ranks him as one of baseball's all time hard luck guys.

The 40-year-old Boston Red Sox batting perfectionist, who has the highest salary in the game, arrived by plane Sunday night from the club's Scottsdale, Ariz., training camp to clear his mind in his neck and right shoulder.

Williams was scheduled for consultation with Dr. Charles Fager, a neurosurgeon, who was expected to recommend hospitalization and traction treatment for the trouble which stems from a pinched nerve.

Despite his repeated triumphs on the field, Williams is experiencing still another of a long line of physical ailments which have plagued him since his World War I hitch as a Marine pilot.

"I'm all right, I'm all right," the defending American League batting king said when he left the plane at Logan Airport. "This has been bothering me for about two weeks now and been getting progressively worse. It's definitely

Evidence of Oddball Meteorites

By FRANK CAREY, Associated Press Science Writer

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—Evidence of oddballs among the meteorites from outer space — fancy enough to be mistaken for machined iron — was reported today by two atomic scientists.

Identification of one such strange object — differing somewhat from all other known meteorites — was reported to a meeting of the American Physical Society, convened at Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

The report cleared up one puzzle that has plagued scientists for 40 years. However, it left unanswered how this object, and possibly others like it, still undeciphered, took on features differing from those of run of the mill meteorites that sometimes reach the earth.

Physicists David Fisher and Oliver A. Schaeffer said the object they studied was a chunk of iron found imbedded in the soil of Washington County, Colorado, away back in 1916.

Ever since its discovery, they said, there has been uncertainty as to whether it was an iron meteorite — or just a chunk of forged discarded by some craftsman of the past.

For one thing, the object's overall appearance suggested it might have been machined.

The researchers — both of the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission's Brookhaven National Laboratory at Upton, N.Y. — said they recently solved the riddle by applying a finding made several years ago by scientists in several countries.

This was the discovery that all meteorites, as they hurtled through space, acquire quantities of gaseous helium — the latter being produced by the action of cosmic rays on the material of the meteorite.

more than muscular but I'm not worried about it."

Williams explained he got relief from the pain only when he held his chin up and his head motionless. He said it produced a sharp pain when he turned his head to the right and that there are periods when he is lying down when it hurts him to breathe.

Matter of Fact

Beans are so rich in protein that they are often used as an inexpensive substitute for meat. The common broad bean contains more protein than wheat. Bean plants not only serve as "forage" for animals, but also help in the growth of other plants. They are among the small group of plants on which nitrogen-fixing bacteria live. These bacteria have the power of taking in nitrogen from the air and changing it to a form that plants can use.

PENSION INCREASE — Veterans Administrator Sumner G. Whittier will ask Congress for a 100-million-dollar annual increase in disabled veterans' pensions. Whittier has prepared a sliding-scale system based on income. Veterans now drawing pensions will be allowed to choose between the new plan and the present system.

YOUNG GUN — Wearing a "shoulder" holster and a dangerous look is one-month-old Wyatt Earp. The son of Mr. and Mrs. George Earp of Redondo Beach, Calif., the tot is a relative of Wyatt Earp, gunfighter of the old West.

FIRST — Following the fad of unusual professional names like Rock and Tab, there now seems to be a movement toward adding extra letters in a name. An example is Ed Brynes in 977 Sunset Strip on TV. But Sammie Fung, a swimmer, added the first, and added the extra 'e' years ago. He and Noreen are members of the "Bachelor Father" cast.

HASTY RETREAT

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Nathan Robinson, 25, had nothing but thanks for the two men who had propped him on the street, told him he had dropped his wallet and returned it to him.

After the two men made a hasty retreat, Robinson looked inside his wallet and changed his opinion of them — $10 was missing from the wallet.

Hope Star Issues Golden West Pictorial Friday; Deadline on Extra Copy Orders Is Noon, April 3.

16-Page Tabloid, Produced by Offset, of Magazine Quality.

- THE GOLDEN WEST PICTORIAL will be included in our regular edition Friday, April 3, at no increase from the single-copy price of 5c — and of course all subscribers will receive it.
- BUT NO EXTRA COPIES of the regular edition will be printed except on individual orders received at The Star office before Friday noon.
- EXTRA COPIES OF THE PICTORIAL ALONE will be available — but the price for the Pictorial alone is 10c. Order extra copies of the regular edition before Friday Noon and you save 5c on each copy of the Pictorial.
- THE GOLDEN WEST PICTORIAL is, Hope Star believes, the most beautiful special edition ever issued by an Arkansas newspaper. It contains the 37 best of 230 black-and-white pictures The Editor made on The Star's newsboy tour of the Western National Parks last August.
- THE PICTORIAL WAS DESIGNED AND COMPOSED in Hope Star's plant — but the actual printing was done on the $150,000 Hantscho Offset Press of Hurley Printing Co. at Camden, Ark.
- PRESS RUN ON THE TABLOID PICTORIAL is 5,000 copies. This will serve our subscribers, permit sending a copy to every daily and weekly newspaper in Arkansas — and leave about 1,000 for extra counter sales at the office.
- THE GOLDEN WEST PICTORIAL may well be a preview of what Tomorrow's Newspaper will look like. We will be glad to hear your judgment after you have looked it over — come this Friday.

ALEX. H. WASHBURN
Editor & Publisher

THESE EXTRAS from The Editor's film file are not included in the Golden West Pictorial, which was limited to 37 of the best. But these will do as samples of last summer's Newsboy Tour:

LEFT MIDDLE — Here we see an Indian Village at the Silver Slipper tourist trap, where we stopped for an hour or so while climbing the mountain from Rapid City, S. D., to Rushmore Memorial. Bracketed between the two Indians are Star Carrier Danny Hatfield and Circulation Manager C. M. (Pod) Rogers, Jr.

LEFT BOTTOM — At Hill City, S. D., on the run from Rushmore Memorial to Devil's Tower, Wyoming, we stopped and took the boys for a ride on one of the last narrow-gauge railways in America. The old mining railway was removed from the Yukon and its tracks relaid to run from Hill City up a mountain to a mythical town called Oblivion, S. D.
